D1 Team Summary

The primary goal for the 2018 USA CRITS Championship Series is to develop a more sustainable race model for the growth of American cycling. Specifically, the most American and spectator-friendly form of bike racing - criteriums. In discussion with teams, races, and other partners about previous Series years, a few things became clear:

- We must create new revenue streams that recognize the challenges our sport has of not having gate revenue or high cost and quantity of entries by participants to fund event production and rider incentives (prize and travel money).
- The sport needs a format that fans can follow from event to event in order to develop recognizable athletes and teams. That format must provide fans access to compelling content.
- A series needs quality races that reach across all U.S. markets to broaden the available fan base and serve as quality race destinations for teams.
- A series needs to have something to race for.

Components of the 2018 USA CRITS Championship Series

New Live Stream Subscription Package

- Provides access to fans and creates an ongoing revenue source to fund a significant purse
- Underwrites the streaming expense for the races
- Creates commissionable revenue sales opportunities for race teams while increasing team promotion

Stronger Calendar

- Reaches across broad U.S. markets to include the very best venues and ideal standards of American cycling
- Inclusion of more events surrounding USA CRITS events providing multiple days of racing

Something to Race For

- $100,000 Champion's Purse that includes leader's jerseys
- Defined teams competing in the series
- Iconic season ending race

Each of the 11 (10+Final) USA CRITS Championship Series races will be locally originated races. Our goal is to work with each race to provide a standard racing format to include live streaming, athlete promotional and financial support, and support of the Series sponsors. These events have underwritten the costs of an overall prize list and live stream. Collectively, the goal is to recoup this investment through fan based subscription memberships and to create additional revenue for future years to increase individual and overall rider incentives and prize money.

We are all in this together, and in order to be successful, we will need support from USA CRITS D1 Teams in participating and helping promote the Series and the stream subscription model.

We will be coordinating our video person to connect with your team pre-season (camp, very early race, etc).
- USA CRITS D1 Team-specific video and content to be made available in the VOD section of the live stream page.
- A 20% commission will be paid back to USA CRITS D1 Teams on cash sponsors generated for the Series. Sponsor decks will be sent out to teams signing up.

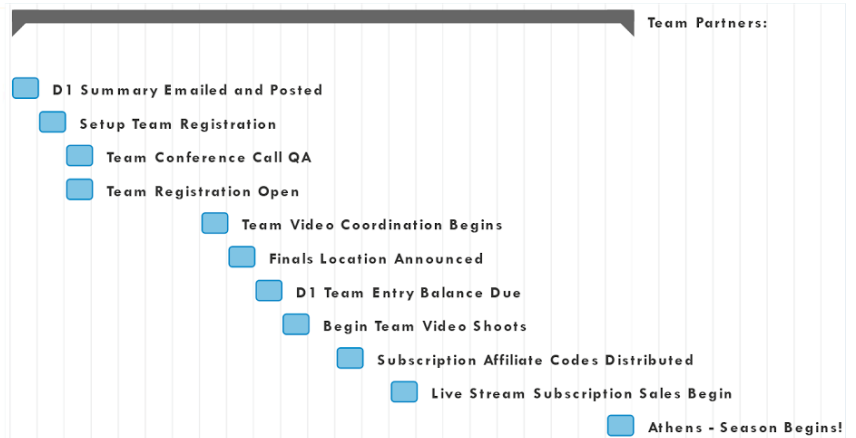

*Select events surrounding USA CRITS races (i.e. UCI, multi-day races) may have some additional requirements.

HOUSING

Due to the complicated nature of event planning and the varying venue host cities, especially when it comes to the multi-day race events like WSCC and Gateway Cup, we have determined it is too far out of our reach to guarantee such a feature as part of the USA CRITS D1 Team package this year. In addition, not all teams are on the same travel schedule, and while one team spends multiple days surrounding race weekends, others come in just for day-of and leave soon after podiums. Our commitment has been and will continue to be to encourage our Series races to provide hotels or host housing for those who are USA CRITS D1 Teams, to work with them as much as we can on our end to further that possibility, and provide them a list of USA CRITS D1 Teams and race-specific riders committed to their events as early as possible with your help.

Clarifications and Rules Updates 12-5-17

Cat 2 men's racers, typically not allowed at PRT designated events, will be granted a waiver upon request. This request should be made at least two weeks prior to the event and CANNOT be guaranteed after that.

Results will be emailed directly to D1 Teams after the results are made official following each USA CRITS Series event.

From a Series points scoring standpoint, riders are only allowed to race for one (1) team per Series calendar.

Should a non-D1 rider choose to join a D1 Team mid-season, points do not carry over.

USA CRITS will begin promoting registered team names February 15th, unless otherwise instructed.

Partial reimbursement of D1 Team buy-in will be made should less than nine (9) events occur on the proposed schedule, as outlined in the D1 Team Contract Agreement.

A single representative from each collective group of men's D1 Teams and women's D1 Teams will be nominated on March 1st to serve as part of a USA CRITS Series Advisory Board.
